Nothing Helps Like Hope

"Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering for He who promised is faithful." (Hebrews 10:23)

Hope is a wonderful gift from God, a source of strength and courage in the face of life's harshest trials.

When we are trapped in a tunnel of misery, hope points to the light at the end.

When we are overworked and exhausted, hope gives us fresh energy.

When we are discouraged, hope lifts our spirits.

When we are tempted to quit, hope keeps us going.

When we struggle with a crippling disease or a lingering illness, hope helps us persevere beyond the pain.

When we fear the worst, hope brings reminders that God is still in control. When we are forced to sit back and wait, hope gives us the patience and trust.

Put simply, when life hurts and dreams fade, nothing helps like hope.

His Life Hid in Your Heart

Week 6: Jesus and Isaac Jim Gardner

The son of promise! The similarities between Jesus and the events in the Old Testament may have no stronger parallel than the long-awaited son who was offered as a sacrifice, and the image of a substitute that cannot be separated from the story. Isaac and Christ have several fascinating elements that overlap, and this week we'll spend time reading Jim Gardner's observations.

The key theme in each lesson is some type of sacrifice, and the story winds between the Old Testament, the New Testament, and the current lives you and I are living that are impacted by the journey. It helps us see the big pictures, and be encouraged by the successes and mistakes of those who have gone before us. Certainly Isaac made his share of mistakes, and we can sympathize and learn at the same time.

Spend a few minutes each day with these great lessons, and you'll be blessed. Do it every day, and it will change your life!

With Love, Adam
