Sincerity Is Not Enough

In a New York hospital several years ago, carbon dioxide instead of oxygen was mistakenly administered to a patient. According to the police report, the patient died almost instantly. The unfortunate patient died in spite of his own sincerity and that of the hospital authorities, the anesthesiologist, and the surgeon.

In the same way, in religious things certainty must be coupled with sincerity. A person can be religiously honest and yet be in an extremely unsafe spiritual condition.

Saul of Tarsus was sincere during the time when the blood of Christians was dripping from his hands. After his conversion to Christ he said, "I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day" (Acts 23:1). "Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth" (Acts 26:9).

The plain teaching of the Book of God is "a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" (Psalm 119:105). "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death." (Proverbs 14:12).

Make absolutely sure you are right, and then sincerely practice it.

His Life Hid in Your Heart

Week 11: Jesus Teaches from the Old Testament

Keith Harris

Let's be honest, if someone stood up in church one day and read a passage of Scripture, it wouldn't be that big of a deal to us. We take the public reading of Scripture for granted sometimes, don't we (be honest!)? So if someone stood up and read from Isaiah, we wouldn't blink. But what if, after he finished reading it, and as he was walking down from the podium, he stood in front of everyone and said, "That verse is talking about me, and I'm here to fulfill it today!" Again, let's be honest. We'd flip out. No one has the right to do such a thing. Well, almost...

Yet, one Saturday in his hometown, when Jesus (allow me this paraphrase) 'went to church' with his mother, that's exactly what he did. Maybe the reaction he got wasn't so far fetched (ok, trying to kill someone is usually a little far fetched)? Jesus looked at his Bible in a special way, and he brought it to life for those willing to listen to him. We could learn a lot more about this amazing body of literature if we, too, are willing to see how important it was to him. Read Keith's thoughts about it!

If you spend a few minutes each day with these great lessons, you'll be blessed. Do it every day, and you'll be changed forever!

With Love, Adam

So you may have life...

Thank You to Those Who Gave to the CP Center - last week. As a whole Petersville contributed $1833.00.

Help With Food for Lads Convention - Instead of asking for items--we will be feeding the families a little differently this year for health safety concerns. If you can help with monetary donations for Lads--please see Autumn Richardson.

Masks Are Mandatory - during our worship and class periods while we are in the building. This keeps others safe as well as you!

Help With Food Zones - Ladies, we still have some spots to fill on our zone hostess lists -- sign up at the side foyer.

Lord's Supper Bread - We are not ready to do home-made bread yet for the Lord's Supper--we will tentatively start scheduling in June or July, but will be subject to change as the elders feel it is safe to pass trays/begin again!

Split Service - Sunday night, March 28th. The boys will be leading service upstairs. The girls will lead the service downstairs. (There will be no classes this night).

Lads Convention - April 2nd - 4th. Pray for our group going.

Homecoming - June 27th with Sonny Owens. No VBS or Gospel Meeting this year.

Summer Series 2021 - Plans are being made to continue our yearly summer series. More will follow soon.

Deepest Sympathy

Deepest sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Bonnie Kimbrell, over the passing of her sister, Martha Faye Godbout last week. Arrangements are not known at this time. Please keep Bonnie and her family in your prayers.
