

His Life Hid in Your Heart

Week 18: Jesus as Prophet

Cecil May

What is a prophet, exactly? It's a more complicated question than we might first expect. And what does it mean when the prophets prophesy ABOUT ANOTHER prophet coming? And how does that influence the way that Jesus interacts with the people, not just as a teacher or rabbi, but as a prophet of the Lord?

These are very important questions that we often overlook about the life of Jesus. Going all the way back to Moses, it was said that another great prophet would come—unlike anyone else. This is yet another way the ministry of Jesus stands out as significant and if we take a few moments to contemplate what it means, it can give us another dimension to his life.

Cecil May does a really good job picking out some fascinating aspects of this study in our reading through the week. He takes us through passages in Acts, Deuteronomy, Galatians, Micah, and Luke and along the way, he points out items like one guiding a tour group and educating them as they pass important milestones. Get on board this week and see what is waiting to be learned. Spend a few minutes each day in God's Word, and be blessed. Do it every day, and you'll be changed forever!

With Love, Adam

Always Be . . .

Always,

Be understanding to your enemies.
Be loyal to your friends.
Be strong enough to face the world each day.
Be weak enough to know you cannot do anything alone.

Always,

Be generous to those who need your help.
Be frugal with that you need yourself.
Be wise enough to know that you do not know everything.
Be smart enough to continue learning.

Always,

Be willing to share your joys.
Be willing to share the sorrows of others.
Be a leader when you see a path others have missed.
Be a follower when you are shrouded by the mists of uncertainty.

Always,

Be first to congratulate an opponent who succeeds.
Be last to criticize a colleague who fails.
Be sure where your next step will fall, so that you will not tumble.
Be sure of your final destination, by setting your goals along the way.

Above all, always be yourself and seek God to guide you! --unknown

Petersville Church of Christ

Sunday Bulletin, May 2nd, 2021 ~ Special Graduation Issue

"Praise God

forever and ever,

because he has

wisdom and power...

He gives wisdom to those who are wise

and knowledge to — those who understand."

Daniel 2:20-21

Congratulations Graduates

Cameron Frederick
Central High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to attend UNA in the fall.

Cassie Johnson
Wilson High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to attain a better job. College plans are undetermined at this time.

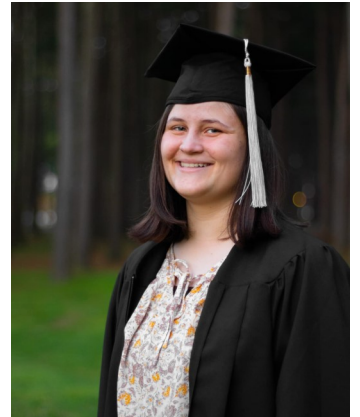

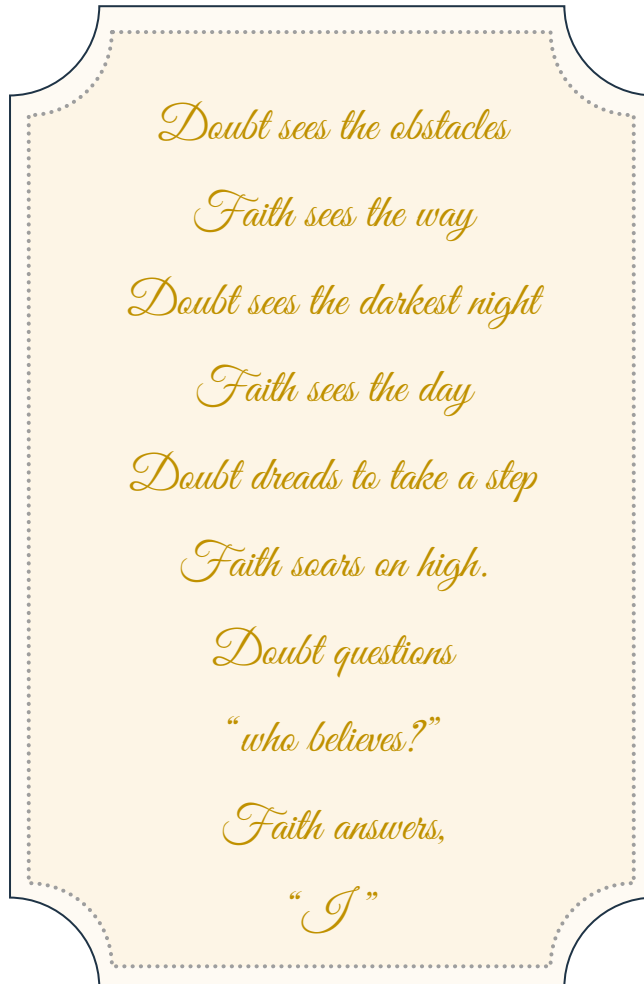

Jamie Johnson
Wilson High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to attain a better job. College plans are undetermined at this time.

Sydni Allison Phillips
Central High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to attend UNA and major in nursing

Tiffany Ann Smith
Wilson High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to become a marine biologist, get married and have a family

Macey Richardson
Rosewood Academy Homeschool
Graduates: May 22nd
Plans to attend Freed-Hardeman University on Academic Scholarship

Madison Walker
Wilson High School
Graduates: May 28th
Plans to attend Northwest Shoals, then UNA to pursue a degree in education.

Our College Graduates

Megan Lyons
Northwest Shoals Community College
Graduates: May 15th
Received an Associate Degree in Science. Plans to continue education in the medical field

Colby Mays
University of North Alabama
Graduates: May 8th
Received a BBA in Professional Management with concentration in General Management

Autumn Richardson
Heritage Christian University
Graduates: May 22nd
Received an Master of Ministry in Biblical Studies