Pull in the Anchor

"Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors." (Matthew 6:12)

Have you done someone wrong? Have you been offensive? Have your actions caused hurt? To do nothing is not only in direct disobedience to Jesus' teaching, it also complicates your life. It adds heavier mental weights than you are capable of carrying. It is like dropping an anchor and then cranking up your boats' engine and putting it in gear. The anchor keeps catching and snagging on the bottom, making for a terribly uncomfortable ride across the water. How simple the solution! Just pull in the anchor . . .

Let me give you a simple tip: We cannot be right with God until we are right with others.

His Life Hid in Your Heart

Week 29: Jesus and His Apostles
By Wayne Jones

If someone asked you to answer a series of questions about your life until this point, what would you say qualifies for each of the following:

- A Day that Changed Your World
- A Day that Forged Your Faith
- A Day that Tested Your Understanding
- A Day that Calmed Your Fears
- A Day that Sealed Your Future

These are some big ticket items, as they say! These are the kinds of events that are never to be forgotten, that shape you into the person you are. When biographers write about famous people in history, this is the kind of information they are looking to share with the reader—information that will help others understand why the individual in question acts the way they do and accomplished whatever made them noteworthy.

Wayne Jones shows us in our 5 short devotionals this week what some of those moments must have been for the Apostles who walked with Jesus for 3 years. Spend a little time thinking about what moments from the Gospels YOU would list as so significant to these men as they followed him.

How can you be influenced by the Lord as much as they were? Read a little each day, and be blessed! Do it everyday, and change your life!

With Love, Adam

“Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your god. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” (Isaiah 41:10)

A Christian IS . . .

A MIND through which Christ thinks.

A HEART through which Christ loves.

A VOICE through which Christ speaks.

A HAND through which Christ helps.
