

Sermon Notes

Jesus Borrowed . . .

- a place for His birth
- A house to sleep in
- A boat to preach from
- An animal to ride on
- A room to meet with friends, and
- A tomb to be buried in.

He who owned it all had nothing of His own.

“You know the grace in our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor that you through His poverty might become rich.” (2 Corinthians 8:9)

Jesus Left . . .

- His purse to Judas
- His clothes to the soldiers
- His body to Joseph of Arimathea
- His mother to John
- His peace to the disciples
- His supper to His followers
- His gospel to the world
- His presence with God’s children, and
- His crown for me.

“For me a crown of righteousness.” (2 Tim. 4:8)

His Life Hid in Your Heart

Week 26: I Am... The Way, The Truth, the Life
By Paul Spurlin

I consider this week’s writer, Paul Spurlin, to be a good friend. His passion for getting closer to Jesus in his ministry is an inspiration to me and countless others, so when he shares his thoughts in our devotional book this week on Jesus’ words from John 14, I know his words will have a deep impact on my outlook.

As we celebrate our homecoming today (41 years as a family!), consider how critical it is that Jesus is the ONLY way, truth, and life available for us today. What an important message to carry—within our own hearts and to the rest of the outside world! It changes everything else around us, and Jesus knew that when he said it to the apostles just a few hours before he was violently taken away from them.

Paul mentions ‘smelling like Jesus’ in one of his devotionals, that’s how close he wants us to get to the Messiah. What a friend we have in Jesus! To be willing to go to such lengths for those he loves, and to call us to share in his glory as we walk with him—there is no greater opportunity, because he IS the way, truth, and life.

When you consider those thoughts this week, strive to make your heart receptive to that call from the Lord and draw closer to him with each word. Read a little each day, and be blessed! Do it everyday, and change your life!

With Love, Adam
