Graduating. . .

From High School or College?

If you will be graduating from High School or College in May (OR graduated college in December) – a special day is being planned in your honor for Sunday, May 1st. These items need to be turned in NO LATER THAN NEXT SUNDAY (17th).

Needs:

~ Name & school	bulletin)
~ Graduation Date	~ 3 - 5 pictures for
~ If College Grad--type of degree	powerpoint (baby, childhood, w/family,
~ Future Plans	friends, etc.

Beatitudes . . . for parents

Blessed are parents who make their peace with mud and spilled milk for such is the kingdom of childhood.

Blessed are parents who refuse to compare their children with others, for each is precious in his/her own way.

Blessed are fathers and mothers who have learned to laugh, for this is the music of the child's world.

Blessed are parents who can say no without anger, for comforting to the child is the security of a firm decision.

Blessed are parents who accept the awkwardness of their growing children, letting each progress at his own speed.

Sermon Notes

[illegible]

Blessed are parents who are still teachable, because knowledge brings understanding and love.

Blessed are parents who love their children in the midst of a hostile world, for love is the greatest of all gifts.

Week 15: Honor One Another

By Tommy Haynes

Let's look at another one of the "one another" sections of scripture for our devotionals this week. These are brought to us by Tommy Haynes, who begins with a passage from Philippians 2 that we here in Petersville have looked at a couple of different times recently. As we recently studied having the 'mind of Christ' we didn't examine the opening verses of that chapter very much, but they were the reason Paul brought up the mind of Christ in the first place!

In those first verses, Paul says very plainly that we are to ‘consider others as more significant than ourselves’ which flies directly in the face of our culture today. I imagine it did the same thing back then, otherwise Paul wouldn't have had to mention it to them! Pride is older than almost every other human emotion and sin, because it usually gives birth to the ones that follow after. So we have to be reminded to avoid it often. Honoring those around us for their character or efforts is a good way to help.

After all, if you're too busy holding others up, it's kind of hard to put yourself on a pedestal!

Spend some time thinking about that today and be blessed. Bless others as you go. If you strive to put it to work everyday, without a doubt God will change your life for the better!

With Love, Adam

Join us this evening at 5:00 p.m. It's our monthly singing service, and we'll be splitting into guys and girls for the opportunity to practice before they go to Lads to Leaders this weekend.

Not what we READ
But what we REMEMBER
That makes us learned
Not what we PROFESS
But what we PRACTICE
That makes us Christians
